PATHÉ TUSCHINSKI

ABRAHAM TUSCHINSKI

In 1921, after a construction period of two years, Abraham Tuschinski opened the Tuschinski Theatre. The Polish tailor had been on his way to the US in 1904, but decided to stay in Rotterdam, where he opened several cinemas. In 1916 he wanted to start something unique in Amsterdam with his brothers-in-law, Herman Gerschtanowitz and Hermann Ehrlich.

“Amsterdam has many theatres, but if I build one, it must surpass all others. Grand like a temple and luxurious like a palace, a theatre like no other in Europe, a theatre that will even leave the spoiled Amsterdam public in awe.”

This yearning for originality and beauty was always priority number one in the Tuschinski Theatre: imitating other theatres was unthinkable for Abraham Tuschinski. This becomes evident when looking at the many changes the interior of Tuschinski has experienced and the many extraordinary elements that characterize the theatre. While under Tuschinski's control, the theatre was never quite finished.

Abraham Tuschinski, who was Jewish, was murdered on the 17th of September 1942 in Auschwitz. As a tribute to the founder of the most beautiful theatre in The Netherlands, Pathé decided to build this bar named after him:
Bar Abraham.

In this cocktail and drinks bar we make signature cocktails. The cocktails are inspired by films and are primarily built using Dutch ingredients. Bar Abraham also serves fine wines and a diverse selection of small dishes to share. Or why not try our delicious Italian coffees or one of our pastries?
